Every organization deserves to have an Anonymous Ethics Employee Hotline for its employees to advise it of any wrongdoing.

Fraud is as common in business as coffee cups:

- 45% of all companies experience fraud at any given time
- the median fraud incident is $140,000; 1/4 are in excess of $1 million and
- a typical company loses 5% of its revenue annually to fraud

But it's Not Just Fraud...there's also...

- Employee harassment
- Drug and alcohol abuse
- Discrimination
- Wrongful termination
- Cyber security
- Misinformation to clients
- Lying, falsification of records

Anonymity and the perception of anonymity might be the most important determining factor in people submitting reports (over 97% of all incident reporters submit reports anonymously).

- Termination, retaliation, retribution, and being ostracized by co-workers are employees greatest fears
- Most are not multi-lingual and over 48% of all reports are initiated after hours and weekends...there is essential need for multilingual, 24/7/365 coverage

Services include...
